*I leave behind an empty shell of myself,
A lifetime of memories for you.
Remember me often, as I will you.
Cry as you may, but with each teardrop,
Hear the patter of the rain.
When your heart aches,
I will be holding you in my arms.
When the sun is shining brightly,
I will be the rays.
When the stars fill the sky, open your eyes.
I will be the brightest one.
When the wind blows,
Hear me whisper in your ear.
For I haven't gone far.
I will be with you always.
Look at the palm of your hand and know,
I am holding you tightly.
For I am flying on one of the wings of an angel.
And patiently saving the other for you.
Until then,
Remember me...*
