SOME WORDS FROM ONES WHO WORSHIP AT BROADMAN

ROBBY SNYDER (born 1950) Being raised in the church, I received the Lord Jesus into my life as a teenager. Mom loved the Lord, Dad was unsaved, Bible study, and prayer life was recommended, but I never saw it practiced as a kid. So at age 20, I had my high school sweetheart pregnant, married for one year, went to college for 2 years, dropped out and I was already in trouble!

Did I turn to the Lord and rethink my direction before the Lord? No, I was bullet-proof and decided I was going to be rich by the age of 30. So I went west to California!

My uncle taught me his business and I ran with individuals making more in a month than most make yearly. You see, I left the Lord far behind, but HE never left me. The Lord started to show me life without HIM. All these so-called rich people were lonely, grabbing for more toys and never content about anything.

Today [November 28, 2011], I'm a committed Christian, still making mistakes, but the Bible and prayer are daily disciplines in my life. You can keep the Big Bang Theory, fast, empty living ... just give me, JESUS! His ways are the right ways to live this life. I'm experiencing what joy means now by helping others and I've got my eyes on eternity with my Savior. There's no other name under heaven whereby we might be saved; Jesus Christ. Do you know HIM? He will give you purpose eternally ... just invite HIM in. Let me help you. OK?
