CHANGES IN THE LIVES OF ONES WHO WORSHIP AT BROADMAN

From the DEACONS page of the Broadman website :

Prospective Deacons may be asked to serve twelve months as a Yokefellow, one working beside other Deacons learning about the duties and responsibilities of service as a Deacon. Any Yokefellow-time is useful to help the church determine whether the prospective Deacon should indeed serve. The prospective Deacon may also use Yokefellow-time for personal, prayerful reflection to determine if he should or must serve Jesus as a Deacon of His church.

Yokefellows Clarence Leyh (red shirt) and Robby Rob Snyder (black shirt) were ordained as Deacons November 27, 2011. Pastor Christopher Chris McCombs is shown leading the ordination.

William Bill Stockdale (not pictured) had been ordained some time ago; his ordination was re-confirmed-to-service at Broadman November 27, 2011.
