SOME WORDS FROM ONES WHO WORSHIP AT BROADMAN

THERESA JOHNSON (born 1971) I've grown up in a church environment throughout my life. As I got older, I would attend church mostly with friends, never really finding a church I was comfortable in. As time went on, there were a few churches I became more involved with, especially after having children. I realized there was a larger need to be involved and show them that God is a part of our lives. Since moving to Ohio, I searched for a church we were all comfortable with. This process took many years. Now, I am very happy to say Broadman is our church. Although I am unable to be here as much as I would like, I know that Broadman is my family and I can always find a place to renew my faith, support and comfort here whenever needed.
